To Whom It May Concern,

Our organization was really impressed with Boris Cherniak at our recent staff Christmas party. He was always available for any questions or concerns prior to the day of the party. Boris was also a hit with the audience. His material was funny but at the same time respectful and ideally suited for our professional crowd.

A great time was had by all, and our event was a success. I give my highest recommendation to hire "The Incredible Boris" as your entertainment. You will not be disappointed.

Sincerely,

Stéphane Méthot
Regional Manager
